/// FOUNDING PRINCIPLE • 01

We don't replace your tools — we give them an agent.

KAI layers on top of the calendars, chats and social accounts a business already runs — so owners keep working the way they always have, while the automation runs underneath. No migration, no learning curve, no gaps.

MEET THE AGENT.

The hat, the posture, the lime field — this character is the face of every KAI interaction. They reply, they book, they post. Not a logo. A coworker.

/// 03 • WORDMARK

CUT. NOT DRAWN.

The KAI wordmark is built from thick stenciled blocks with sharp negative-space cuts. It reads from across a room and survives bad print. Treat the cuts as sacred — they’re the personality.

/// 04 • ISOTIPO

A FACE FOR THE AGENT.

The isotipo is a square — black border, lime field, agent silhouette. It’s our avatar across every social platform and the only mark that ever appears alone.

/// 07 • DON'TS

SIX WAYS TO BREAK IT.

Each of these makes the brand look amateur and breaks recognition. If you have to ask, it's already a no.

01 • DON'T STRETCH OR SQUASH

02 • DON'T RECOLOR OFF-PALETTE

03 • DON'T ROTATE OR TILT

/// 08 • COLOR

INK + LIME = NON-NEGOTIABLE.

Two primaries do the heavy lifting. Four supporting tones step in for surfaces, depth, and the rare moment we need to shout.

/// 11 • VOICE

KAI TALKS LIKE A QUIET, COMPETENT COWORKER.

Short sentences. Plain words. Dry humor. Never robotic, never breathless. Every line should sound like a coworker who’s already on it.

✓ WE SOUND LIKE THIS

”Hey Sam — yes, 16:30 or 18:00 today. Both 25 min.”

Direct. Helpful. Already solving it.

✓ WE SOUND LIKE THIS

”Booked ✓ I sent you a calendar invite and a reminder for tomorrow.”

Closes the loop. No fanfare.

✓ WE SOUND LIKE THIS

”Your inbox just got a co-pilot. Drop a 🙌 to meet KAI.”

Confident. Inviting. One tap to act.

✗ NOT LIKE THIS

~~”Greetings! I am pleased to inform you that several appointment options are available...”~~

Too formal. Sounds like a chatbot.

✗ NOT LIKE THIS

~~”🚀 SUPERCHARGE YOUR INBOX with REVOLUTIONARY AI! ✨ ✨ ✨”~~

Loud. Hype. Nothing to back it up.

✗ NOT LIKE THIS

~~”Our enterprise-grade omnichannel solution leverages NLP to optimize CX touchpoints.”~~

Jargon. Says nothing. Hides behind words.

PATTERNS, MARKS, FURNITURE.

A small vocabulary of textures and tactical marks. Use them sparingly — they’re the difference between a layout that reads like KAI and one that reads like anything else.

A • HAZARD TAPE

Edges and accents. Signals “live” or “important”. 45° angle is mandatory.

B • DOT GRID

Atmospheric texture on dark surfaces. Stays under content, never in front.

C • CORNER TICKS

Frames the agent — or important content. Always 2-3px stroke.

D • TACTICAL TAGS

Always mono, always ALL CAPS, always leading slashes or dot-separators.

E • ICONOGRAPHY

Bold stencil-feel line icons. 4px stroke. Always inside a square ink or lime tile.

F • PHOTOGRAPHY DIRECTION

Documentary, natural light, real shops and real owners. No stock-AI offices. No suits.
